SGDF CIRCULAR 07/2006

Wednesday 18 October 2006

Dear Member(s)

ARCHIVAL OF SGDF WEBSITE BY NATIONAL LIBRARY BOARD (NLB)

“The average lifespan of a website is the same as a housefly – 44 days”

The National Library Board (NLB) is traditionally known to collect items in print. NLB is also committed to archiving online and electronic publications of lasting national, historical, research and cultural value. It is currently undertaking a 1 year web-archiving pilot project, with the long-term goal of building a comprehensive collection of Singapore-related websites and publications to ensure that Singaporeans have access to their documentary heritage now and in the future.

NLB has deemed this website to be an important part of Singapore's documentary heritage and would like it to remain available to researchers and generations of Singaporeans in the future. The NLB will also catalogue your publication, thereby increasing awareness of your publication among researchers using our Library network.

To access the Web Archives, please follow these steps:

- Step 1: Go to <http://www.nlb.gov.sg>
- Step 2: Click on the “eResources” tab and select “eArchives”
- Step 3: Do a search in the Web Archive
- Step 4: Click on the record you would like to view

We are please to inform members that the SGDF Website is now archived by the National Library Board.

The SGDF website was designed, updated and maintained since 1997, by Mr Robert Ong. The current design is the 2nd incarnation of the website.

Best Regards
